

ROYAL BELGIAN BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Scholarship

The RBBS is offering a Scholarship to a Belgian citizen who wishes to study at The London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and has been offered a post-graduate place on a specific course. The financial help offered is to enable the student who for financial reasons would not otherwise be able to take up the place, to do so.

When completing the form the applicant should:

- i) explain their financial situation and why they require this funding for study, and whether they would be willing to help RBBS in promoting scholarships to future students;
- ii) outline their plans and how they will use the degree after studying at the School.

Financial support

This award is to be used as a contribution towards fees or living expenses.

Eligibility criteria

A Belgian citizen who has been offered a post-graduate place to study at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine during the academic year beginning in September 2018, but who would not be able to accept without the financial help offered by this scholarship.

How to apply

Please submit the Royal Belgian Benevolent Society Scholarship Application to the LSHTM Scholarships team by the closing date below.

If you have not yet submitted an application for an appropriate course of study at the School, please submit an LSHTM course application by the closing date below.

Applications submitted to the LSHTM Scholarships Team will be collated and forwarded to the Royal Belgian Benevolent Society for consideration.

The deadline for completed applications is the 28th February.
